

COPLA-Bolivia progress report corresponding to December 2008

(7 January, 2009)

1. Research

- A 5000 word summary of the case study “Dynamics of Brazil-nut production” finished and submitted to ODI for clearance;
- Two opinion pieces written originally in Spanish translated into English. One on “International trade and youth” (available at) and the other on “International trade and gender” (available at).

2. Communications

- Third training course on “Políticas de comercio y castaña” that took place in Guayaramerin municipality (north part of Bolivia) on 27th and 28th November 2008. This training course was part of a forum titled “First bi-national forum on Brazil nut production”. Minutes of this training and forum available at
- Third training course on “Políticas públicas de turismo y acceso a mercados” that took place in Puerto Suárez (east part of Bolivia) on 17th and 18th December 2008. Minutes of this training available at: .